<http://www.fillesduroi.org>

The purpose of La Société des Filles du roi et soldats du Carignan is to honor the memory of our courageous ancestors, the filles du roi (King's Daughters) and the soldiers of the Carignan-Salières Regiment of 17th century New France.

The King's Daughters (French: filles du roi; filles du roy) is a term used to refer to the approximately 800 young French women who immigrated to New France between 1663 and 1673 as part of a program sponsored by Louis XIV. The program was designed to boost Canada's population both by encouraging male immigrants to settle there, and by promoting marriage, family formation and the birth of children. While women and girls certainly emigrated to New France both before and after this time period, they were not considered to be filles du roi, as the term refers to women and girls who were actively recruited by the government and whose travel to the colony was paid for by the king.^[1] They were also occasionally known as the King's Wards, where "wards" meant those under the guardianship of another.

MAISON SAINT-GABRIEL home to the Filles du Roi (the King's daughters)
<http://www.maisonsaint-gabriel.qc.ca/en/index.html>

It was at Maison Saint-Gabriel, on the shores of the majestic St. Lawrence River, in the house bought in 1668, near the Pointe-à-Callière fort, that Marguerite Bourgeoys received the King's Wards.

As the house for receiving the King's Wards from 1668 to 1673,

a small school and then a farmhouse, Maison Saint-Gabriel has endured through three centuries almost unchanged.

Declared a monument of national interest in 1965,

it was restored and transformed into a museum in 1966.

Getting along as best they could in the difficult world of a new colony, the King's daughter's made their home on this 30-arpent farm. Their role was to adapt to the rigors of the country, and to take a husband.

OUR GUINDON CONNECTIONS to the filles du roi et soldats du Carignan

Francoise Pilois and Andre Barsa daughter Catherine Barsa married Pierre Guindon 21 Nov 1706, Notre Dame Church, Montreal, Quebec.

1. Francoise Pilois m Andre Barsa dit Lafleur 2 Dec 1669

*Andre Barsa dit Lafleur, is a member of the Carignan-Salières regiment, married a fille du roi (Using the PRDH records and the Red Drouin, Barsa is referenced as Barsa or the above.)

2. Elisabeth Hubert m Louis Bolduc 20 Aug 1668 in Quebec City

*Louis Bolduc is a member of the Carignan-Salières regiment who married a fille du roi

3. Francoise Conflans m Charles Rancin 11 Oct 1667 in Quebec City, Quebec. a fille du roi

If you have any female ancestors who arrived in Canada between 1662 and 1673 and married in Canada they most likely were filles du roi. If you think you might have one or more ancestors that were in this group you can find a list of them on the web site of La Société des filles du roi et soldats du Carignan, Inc. www.fillesduroi.org The site is in English and also has information on the famous Carignan-Salières regiment that came to Canada in 1665. If you are interested in joining the Society the membership information is also on the site. William (Bill) Kane a director of the Society also compiled a list of the soldiers of the Carignan Regiment who married filles de roi.

GUINDON CONNECTIONS

By Laverne Aitchison – editor lk.aitch “at” gmail.com

WE WANT TO THANK ALL OF YOU WHO MADE THE EFFORT TO BE A PART OF THIS SPECIAL EVENT: Without you, it wouldn't have been a success!

The Guindon Reunion on July 27, 28, 29, 2012 in Westlock, Alberta was a great success with 80 relatives attending. We welcomed the Guindon families from Falher, Alberta who descend from Napoleon Guindon and Marie Claire Chartrand originally from Ripon, Quebec. Bonnie and Tim Flannery of Eureka, Montana also made the trip to share Bonnie's family connection of Sophia Yandeau who married Joseph Fournier "Fuller". Sophia Yandeau is the sister to Leonard Yandeau. Leonard and Mary Ann Hoover's descendants were the majority attending this family reunion. These families originated in St Benoit, Deux Montagne, Quebec before settling in Vankleek Hill, Ontario. Some of the family moved on to Brasher Falls, New York. Others farmed in the Ottawa Valley.

Our guest of honour, Pat Yandeau is the last of ten children born to Thomas Yandeau (son of Leonard Yandeau) and Elize Jourdain. Pat's families contributed many Yandeau signatures in our guest register. (Pat turned 90 years young March 17, 2012)

A big thank you to Jodi Willaims and her committee members who worked very hard for this special event. Laverne Aitchison, family genealogists since 1972, author of "Where

WELL DONE AND ENJOYED BY ALL!

Sir Thomas of Strathcona and Lady Jannicke Ask of Stokke, Norway presented on the arms and armour of a 14th century knight. Their presentation included the show and tell of a range of weapons from a dagger to longbow and from mail to plate armour. They finished with a five round, five weapon melee fight with Lady Jannicke winning! They are members of a 14th century Living History club in Edmonton, Alberta called Knights of the Northern Realm.

“We must encourage family reunions. The family unit is the basis of our society. A tree symbolizes our family tree and our connection to our roots.”

The family tree at left was filled with leaves from the different branches of the families who attended the reunion. Each person filled in a leaf with their name, date of birth and place.

We acknowledged the fallen leaves at the base of the family tree.

Thank you to Katrina Nielsen, Jenny Williams and Jodi Williams for their efforts to make this project a huge success.

*We are looking for more volunteers for the 2015
Guindon/Yandea reunion in Quebec or France*

Thomas Yohemas giving the traditional toast of his great, great, grandfather Thomas Yandeau:

Drink and be merry
Drown a tear in each glass.
Drink a health to each maiden
And this charming fine lass.
Drink and be merry
All sorrows refrain.
For we may and may never
All meet here again.

We had a contest to see if anyone could find the original version of this poem. This is what Bonnie Flannery found from Spanish Ladies Shanties and Sea Songs:

And let every man drink of a full glass
And we'll drink and be merry and drown melancholy
Singing here's a good health to each true hearted lass

After doing some research when I started to put this newsletter together I found another version of "Tom Yandeau's Toast" from this website:

http://www.thebards.net/music/lyrics/Health_To_The_Company.shtml

Health to the Company

Kind friends and companions, come join me in rhyme
Come lift up your voices in chorus with mine
Let us drink and be merry, all grief to refrain
For we may and might never all meet here again

Here's a health to the company and one to my lass
Let us drink and be merry all out of one glass
Let us drink and be merry, all grief to refrain
For we may and might never all meet here again

Here's a health to the dear lass that I love so well
Her style and her beauty, sure none can excel
There's a smile upon her countenance as she sits on my knee
Sure there's no one in this wide world as happy as we

Our ship lies at harbor, she's ready to dock
I hope she's safe landed without any shock
If ever we should meet again by land or by sea
I will always remember your kindness to me

We would like to acknowledge the time and efforts Mary Boychuk has donated over the past eight years as our membership officer and treasurer. Mary began her dedication in 2004 to these positions when she "volunteered" as our Chairperson for the 2005 Guindon/Yandeau Reunion in Edmonton, Alberta. It was well organized and well received. Mary has officially resigned and has passed her position onto Debra and Gail Fox. Now Mary will have more time to tend to her prize winning flower garden, (left) and her world travel.

Debra and Gail Fox have always been a part of the planning, organization, distribution and proofing of the Guindon Newsletter.

A special thanks to all from the editor of the Guindon Newsletter, Laverne Aitchison.

Guindon 2015 Family Reunion Proposal

From the 2012 Guindon Reunion Survey questionnaire it was a tie between Montreal, Quebec and Loudun, France. Therefore with some research this is some of the information gleaned from working with Patti Bradley of the “ExpediaCruiseShipCenters” in Kamloops. Patti has requested that Laverne Aitchison be the contact person so we can keep e-mail to a minimum and she will not have to filter the contacts.

If you have any questions for the 2015 Reunion please reply with “REUNION” in the subject line to: lk.aitch “at” gmail.com
